

Nationwide[®] Privacy Statement

Thank you for choosing Nationwide[®]

Our privacy statement explains how we collect, use, share and protect your personal information. So, just how do we protect your privacy? In a nutshell, we respect your right to privacy and promise to treat your personal information responsibly. It's as simple as that. Here's how.

Confidentiality and security

We follow all data security laws. We protect your information by using physical, technical and procedural safeguards. We limit access to your information to those who need it to do their jobs. Our business partners are legally bound to use your information for permissible purposes.

Collecting and using your personal information

We collect information about you when you ask about or buy one of our products or services. The information comes from your application, business transactions with us, publicly available sources and consumer reports. Please know that we only use that information to sell, service or market products to you.

We may collect the following types of information:

- Name, address and Social Security number
- Assets and income
- Account and policy information
- Driver's license number
- Financial information
- Consumer report information
- Information from applications and transactions
- Any information you give Nationwide
- Public information
- Family member and beneficiary information

Sharing your information for business purposes

We share your information with other Nationwide companies and business partners. When you buy a product, we may share your personal information for everyday business purposes. Some examples include mailing your statements or processing transactions that you request. You cannot opt out of these. We also share your information with your agent or producer. They use your personal information to manage your policy or account. We may also share your personal information as federal and state law requires.

Sharing your information for marketing purposes

We don't sell your information for marketing purposes. We have chosen not to share your personal information with anyone except to service your product. So, there's no reason for you to opt out. If we change our policy, we'll tell you and give you the opportunity to opt out before we share your information.

On Your Side

Using your medical information

We sometimes collect medical information. We may use this medical information for a product or service you're interested in, to pay a claim or to provide a service. We may share this medical information for these business purposes if required or permitted by law. But, we won't use it for marketing purposes, unless you give us permission.

Accessing your information

You can always ask us for a copy of your personal information. Please call us at 1-888-867-5175 to access your personal information or for questions about our privacy policy. We have a process that allows you to review your information and, for your protection, we will verify your identity first. We can only give access to information that we control. We don't charge a fee for giving you a copy of your information now, but we may charge a small fee in the future.

You can change your personal information at MyNationwide.com or by calling your agent or producer. But, we can't update information that other companies provide to us. So, you'll need to contact these other companies to change and correct your information.
