Clinton-Macomb Public Library offers events

The Clinton-Macomb Public Library (CMPL) is offering hybrid programs this fall.

On Mon., Nov. 1 the librarians at the Main Library will present an in-person program about how to use the Cricut machine. The program will include information on the basics of Design Space and demonstrate how to create a project from beginning to end. Register online or call (586) 226-5050.

Detroit's Thanksgiving Parade is a hometown tradition since 1924. On Wed., Nov. 3 at 7 p.m. join an online program via Zoom to learn more about the parade. This event will include a nostalgic, visual journey down Woodward Avenue that celebrate 97 years of this Detroit original. Register online or call (586) 226-5050.

Visit the Main Library on Sun. Nov. 7 at 3 p.m. to view the Community Salute to veterans. Artifacts from the community will be on display to view. This event will include stories from local veterans and light refreshments. Register online or call (586) 226-5040.

On Tues., Nov, 9 at 6:30 p.m. Tom Carr will present an online program on Zoom about the Dark Side of the Mitten. He will detail stories of murder, mayhem and robbery through the ages in Michigan. Register online or call (586) 226-5040.
